

PRESS RELEASE

EVA - The Rural Morgan County Industrial Development Board is offering a business planning course free to the public. The course titled "Learn the Basics of Business" is a 9 hour course focused on the four cores of business planning – Success Planning, Market Planning, Cash Flow Planning and Operations Planning.

The course curriculum titled "Core Four® Business Planning Course" was developed by the Northeast Entrepreneur Fund and has been used around the nation by colleges, business incubators and small business development centers.

The course will be offered on the following dates:

March 11, 18 and 25, 2010

6:00p.m. to 9:00p.m. each night

Approximately 9 classroom hours

Location: Eva Town Hall

Registration deadline – February 26, 2010

Register at Eva Town Hall – see Judy or Angela

April 15, 22 and 29, 2010

6:00p.m. to 9:00p.m. each night

Approximately 9 classroom hours

Locations: Brewer High School and West Morgan High School

Registration deadline – March 31, 2010

Register by calling Jeff Johnson at (256) 466-6286 or by email at jeffjohnsonatty@bellsouth.net.

The cost of the student workbook is $37.50 and is due on the first night of class. Limited seating is available for all classes.

For more information contact Jeff Johnson at (256) 466-6286.